

APPRENTICESHIP TRAINING 246T

Training Standards Established for the – Processor Operator – Food Manufacturing 246T

A Process Operator – Food Manufacturing operates, monitors, adjusts and maintains food and beverage manufacturing and processing systems and equipment by:

- * Demonstrating safe working practices and procedures
- * Employing job information resources
- * Using and maintaining tools and equipment
- * Transporting and storing process materials
- * Maintaining process equipment and components
- * Preparing raw materials and ingredients
- * Controlling process operations
- * Operating a central control room
- * Carrying out process control procedures

A Process Operator – Food Manufacturing is knowledgeable in:

- * Food Safety and Security
- * Safety Management
- * Mechanical Techniques and Tools
- * Electricity and Instrumentation
- * Maintenance
- * Continuous Quality Improvement
- * Environmental Safety